Connections 2020

Each year the National Theatre in London commissions ten new plays for young people to perform, bringing together some of the UK’s most exciting writers with the theatre-makers of tomorrow. Every year, 300 youth theatre companies and over 6,000 young people from every corner of the UK produce a Connections play. This year RYT Seniors are lucky to join the bill! They will be performing Chris Bush’s The Changing Room at the Riverside for friends, family and public on:

Wednesday 11 March, 7.30pm Tickets: £10

A lyrical piece about existing on the cusp and all the inevitable questions and confusions that come with it. Are we teenagers? Are we children? Do our parents embarrass us? It’s about bodies in flux and perspectives shifting; knowing change is coming but not what that change will look like.

Set in and around a swimming pool, it follows a group of teens full of excitement, impatience and uncertainty, each with their own secret worries and desires for what comes next.

*Nb: The young people will be asked to perform at the Lyric Theatre as part of the official Connections festival on Sunday 5 April 2020. More details to follow from the RYT facilitators.

WHISTLE DOWN THE WIND

Thursday 16 January to Saturday 1 February 2020
Tickets from £16.00

Music by Andrew Lloyd Webber
Lyrics by Jim Steinman

Last January Ballywillan’s Chitty Chitty Bang Bang played to eighteen sold-out performances and now this award-winning group bring one of Andrew Lloyd Webber’s finest family musicals exclusively to Northern Ireland – the sensational Whistle Down the Wind.

Universally acclaimed as Lloyd Webber’s best musical since Phantom of the Opera, the show features a host of leading musical theatre stars as they tell the wonderful story of innocence and hope and the ability of unconditional love to open the hardest of hearts.

This astoundingly musical features a 50 strong children’s chorus and chart-topping hits like “No Matter What” made famous by Boyzone and, of course, the title song “Whistle Down the Wind”.

Lloyd Webber’s beautiful love songs and up tempo numbers make this a musical event not to be missed and will have audiences standing in tearful ovation night after night after night.
PIAF
Wednesday 5 February, 8pm -
Tickets: £20/£18 (conc.)

Widely regarded as one of Europe’s finest interpreters of French Song, Christine Bovill has toured her one-woman play internationally, playing houses from several hundred to a 2,500 seater in South Korea.

PIAF is as much a play as it is a musical tribute to the great French star, and involves Glasgow-born Christine and her pianist.

It is not an impersonation, but rather a story of a Glasgow girl’s discovery of a Piaf record while at school and the subsequent journey it would take her on. Quite an incredible story...

GEORGE MURPHY & THE RISING SONS

Little Willow Productions presents

RUBY

Friday 20 March, 7.30pm - Tickets £15

Following on from its critically acclaimed sell out run last year, Little Willow Productions is proud to return with ‘Ruby!’ a play written by Michael Cameron and featuring Libby Smyth as Ruby Murray.

Belfast born Ruby Murray was one of the most popular singing stars in the world in the 1950s, becoming the only recording artist in history to have five songs in the Top Twenty in the same week. Behind the triumph show ever, a darker story was unfolding in Ruby’s life. This intimate drama enthralled audiences on its debut run. Please note the play contains strong language and adult themes.

The Field is set in rural Ireland during the mid-1960s...

As a patriotic tenant farmer with a fearsome temper and an obsession with the field he has toiled for most of his life, The Bull McCabe epitomises the last stand in the protection of the old order, denying permission of entry to the impending industrial change which threatens the ‘status quo’.

Based on a true story, this dark and at times, hilariously funny tale by J B Keane is a work which went on to inspire one of Ireland’s most successful films ... brought to you by the same amazing theatre company who presented The Beauty Queen of Leenane at Riverside last Spring.

Wednesday 25 March, 8pm - Tickets: £25

Featuring 20 songs from the hit compilation album ‘Now That’s What I Call Country Music’ and featuring the six-piece virtuoso country band The Wagon Wheelers.

The audience get to pick which songs are played via a giant wagon wheel of fortune - a spinning songbook featuring the country classics from the ‘Now’ compilation.
There will be full audience participation each night where the audience ‘write’ a song with the band drawing on their personal experiences which they share on the night.

This is a laugh out loud, feel-good gig with a history of the country song thrown in. The audience will be dancing in the aisles, shedding a tear in tender moments and will leave with a song (that they have co-written) in their hearts. Now That’s What I Call Country Music!

Over a century later, the Carpathian Count has struck terror and fascination into the hearts and minds of the world, and now CASS try their hand at tackling the shadowy gloom of Victorian England and the suffocating glare of the great vampire himself. A CELEBRATION OF FRANKIE VALLI & THE FOUR SEASONS

PRESENTED BY EUROPE’S NO 1 TRIBUTE BYE BYE BABY

Thursday 2 April, 8pm - Tickets: £24.50

Bye Bye Baby is more than your average tribute group. They deliver a full theatre show covering the journey of the Four Seasons from the very beginning up until the Disco era and the rock and roll hall of fame. In fact a musical journey through the sounds of one of the most successful vocal groups of all time.

They perform 33 numbers in close 4 part harmony, with slick choreography and the recognisable falsetto this really sets the scene for a great night.

This sensational production features many of the bands worldwide hits, including:

BEGGIN’, CAN’T TAKE MY EYES OFF YOU’’ LETS HANG ON’ ‘RAG DOLL’, WALK LIKE A MAN, BYE BYEBABY (BABY GOODBYE), SHERRY, WORKING MY WAY BACK TO YOU’BIG GIRLS DON’T CRY and many more.
In the Name of the Son is an exciting new play chronicling the extraordinary life of The Guildford 4’s Gerry Conlon following his release from prison in 1989.

Charting Conlon’s remarkable journey into ‘freedom’ as he received and spent over £1 million pounds, became a cause-celebre at the Hollywood Oscars and ran in the same circles as Johnny Depp, Shane McGowan and Daniel Day Lewis. Conlon seemed to have it all but away from the glamour, fuelled by an addiction to crack-cocaine, his life was spiralling out of control.

When he found himself searching bins in the backstreets of London for food, he knew he had to do something. What emerges from the darkness is Conlon’s resilience and his eventual life-changing recovery to beat his demons and become a world-renowned Human Rights campaigner against miscarriages of justice, similar to his own.

Written by Gerry’s lifelong friend Richard O’Rawe and Martin Lynch the play explores triumph of the human spirit over extreme adversity. A great story of hope.

KEEP TELLING ME LIES

Saturday 4 April, 8pm - Tickets: £23.50

Of all the iconic buildings in Belfast, the now derelict Floral Hall still stands; a monument to the history of life, love, loss and the music of the Showband era.

Keep Telling Me Lies tells of the journey of two Belfast women. Set against the backdrop of the crumbling Floral Hall, they recall the fateful night they met their future musician husbands.

Old grudges resurface and sparks fly as they reminisce about the lifestyles of their globetrotting husbands who experienced fame and fortune while the wives they left behind struggled to bring up their young families, working all day and lonely all night.

This is a story, driven by the music of the Showbands, the people who made the magic happen and those left on the side lines.

He recently starred in his own Comedy Central Live special which launched the latest series and has also been seen on The Comedy Bus, Drunk History and Russell Howard’s Stand Up Central (all Comedy Central), Virtually Famous (E4), Russell Howard’s Good News and Sweat the Small Stuff (both BBC Three) and Fake Reaction and Safe Word (both ITV2).

HORSE COUNTRY

Friday 22 May 2020, 8pm - Tickets £15 (conc. £12)

Two clowns shoot the breeze, drinking bourbon and playing cards. While hunting the illusive nine of diamonds, they casually dissect capitalism, sea-lions, western culture, fishing, genocide, you know... stuff like that.

Sam and Bob are not so much waiting for Godot, nor are they waiting for the audience to keep up. Their window on the world is one of menace, hilarity, disappointment and improbability, all delivered with a magnificent high-octane comic brio.

Anarchic and surreal, this delightful and confusing satire surprises and provokes in spades... or the nine of diamonds...

“A profound yet hilarious interchange between two of the most brilliant idiots one has the pleasure of being forced to watch.”

STRICTLY FOR THE BIRDS

By Sam Cree

Saturday 22 August, 8pm
Tickets: £11 (conc. £9)

Muriel and Herbie Glover and their daughter Susan enjoy life in the domestic setting of a wee terraced house in Belfast. Their neighbour, Lilly Dodds, calls in quite frequently. Herbie keeps pigeons in his loft in the back yard. All is bliss except for the ‘lady next door’, who insists on putting out her washing just as the pigeons are returning from their exploits. When Muriel and Lily learn that they share a sweepstake that has drawn the favourite and are likely to win a considerable sum of money, Muriel’s mother descends on the household with the threat that life will never be the same again for the hapless Herbie. Blending the customary potpourri of Cree characters the play races along to the inevitable conclusion but not before audiences are treated to a hilarious evening of comedy and mayhem that are the hallmarks of Sam Cree’s writing.
